INTRODUCTION

1. Article 52 of the Constitution of India, it says that, there shall be a President of India.

Article 53, tells us that the executive powers of President are vested in this article. The President can indirectly exercise his power with the subordinate.

Article 54, tells about the election of President. The electoral consisting of elected members of the both houses and elected members of legislative assemblies of state are eligible to vote.

Article 55 of the Indian Constitution ~~says~~ tells about the manner of election of President. Through the system of proportional representation and single ~~the~~ vote done through secret ballot is adapted.

Article 56 says about the tenure of President which is for 5 years.

Article 58 says about the qualification.
 • A person should be thirty-five years of age, must be a citizen of India and elected member of

House

Article 60 tells about the oath of President where the person acting ~~as~~ as the ~~Pres~~ President should take oath, oath shall be told by the Chief Justice of India or if in absence, the senior most judge of Supreme Court shall do it.

There are various powers and functions of the President, namely:-

- Executive power
- Military power
- Diplomatic power
- Legislative power
- Ordinance making power
- Pardonning power
- Emergency power

One among the power of President is Ordinance making power.

The President is the nominal head of ~~the~~ state. He is the supreme commander of military, and first citizen of India. He is the part of executive along with Vice-President, Prime Minister and other Council of Ministers.

Article 123 of the Indian Constitution deals with the Ordinance making power of President.

Ordinance making power may come into or be decided under two circumstances.

- i) When both the houses or either any house is in session.
- ii) When the President is of the opinion that to promulgate rather than waiting for the instructions.

• President can call out the ordinance on which the Parliament can make laws.

• The policies will have the same effect as the Parliament has on laws.

• President doesn't need the instruction to promulgate the ordinance.

• President ~~as~~ as he has the power of making ordinance in the same way he can withdraw also.

• Pre requisites of Prime Minister along with Council of Ministers is necessary.

Case Laws

D. C. Wadhwa vs State of Bihar.

In this case, the Governor of Bihar had promulgated 256 ordinances. All these 256 ordinances were kept alive from the period of one to 14 years. Out of 256 ordinances, 69 were re-promulgated and were done with the prior permission of the President. It was held that this led to 'subversion of democratic process' and hence this was considered fraud and unconstitutional.

The Apex court directed the state of Bihar/Bihar Governor to pay compensation of 10,000 rupees to the professor that is D. C. Wadhwa. He had a detailed research on this and hence he was the one who brought it to the court about this matter.

Hence, it was an example of abuse of ordinance making power.

Medical Council of India vs State of Kerala

In this case, the judgment of High Court of Kerala was considered. There were illegal admissions done in the M.B.B.S course, so it to nullify it this took place. There were illegal admissions taking/take place in the 2 colleges of the state. ~~to take over~~ ~~take over~~

Hence to take over look on this, the apex court held that it was not illegal. The arbitrariness and illegality was taking place in the illegal manner. The apex court held that at the judgment of High Court of Kerala to look over it is not illegal so to bring the illegality of admissions in the 2 colleges, there was a need to look over, so what was done was correct to nullify.

The other two cases of ordinance-making power are:-

- R. K. Garg's case
- A. K. Roy's case

2. Bicameralism

- In India, there consists of two houses, namely
  - Lok Sabha
  - Rajya Sabha

1. The two houses are called by various names, House of People, House of Representative, Lower house, Upper house etc.

• The President has the power to appoint to appoint the:-

- Speaker, Chairman and Deputy Chairman.

• The President can summon or prorogue and can dissolve the Lok Sabha.

• After the <sup>commencement</sup> general elections, the President joins the first session.

• The tenure is of 5 years.

• In Rajya Sabha, there can be 2 Anglo-Indians selected. 12 members can be nominated.

Types of Bills

- Money Bills
- Financial Bills
- Ordinary Bills

• In these bills when passed, assent of the President is required.

• Joint sitting sessions

Q.2. 'A', a Hanafi Muslim has four wives. He marries the fifth wife. Is the fifth marriage valid?

Ans. The validity of the fifth marriage of a Hanafi Muslim who is having four wives already has no ground to marry a fifth women.

Under the Dissolution of Muslim Marriage Act, Sec. 2 of the Act provides a power to wife to get a decree of divorce from the courts, and provided the grounds for which a women can get a decree from court for the dissolution of marriage

⇒ Through which a Hanafi muslim if gets a decree of divorce from courts (a)

⇒ He himself divorces any of the 4 wives

(b) ⇒ Any of the 4 wives dies

He is allowed to marry the fifth women.

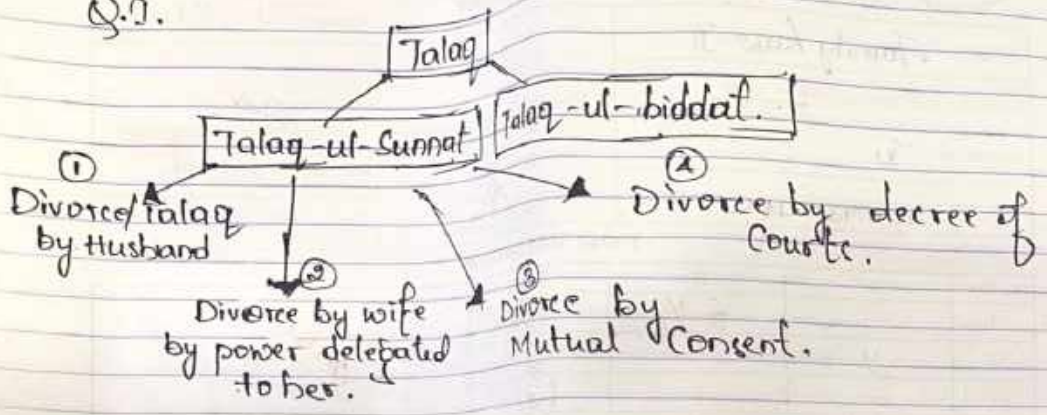

This kind of marriage is irregular/ voidable marriage

In the above said circumstance, 'A' is having 4 wives derives to a anticipation of being alive and not divorced, Thus, 'A' is not allowed (b) forbidden by law to marry a fifth women before he divorces/any of the wife dies.

Q.1.

- 2) a muslim men can pronounce talag at three iddat period consecutively. - Talag-hasan
- 3) a muslim men ~~can~~ if declares a relationship with a wife such that the marriage bet<sup>n</sup> husband & such a declared relationship is prohibited by law - Ila
- 4) a muslim men can pronounce talag three time at once - Triple Talag/Zihar (declared unconstitutional by SC) (criminalised by Triple Talag Act) (harsh punishment of 3 yrs imprisonment)

- ② Divorce by wife to the husband by the power delegated to her.
- This is a kind of divorce/mode of divorce under which:
- a women is / a wife is empowered by the husband to declare <sup>to</sup> get a dissolution decree for the dissolution of their marriage.
- Power of Muslim men under this section.
- He can delegate the power to declare talag to a) any <sup>III</sup> person <sup>(1)</sup>
  - b) on to wife.
- Marriages contracted by guardians.

- ③ Divorce by Mutual Consent:
- Mutual Consent itself denotes that if both the Husband & wife consents to dissolve their marriage.
- Essentials: Both of Husband <sup>(1)</sup> & wife can offer for divorce.
- Willfull consent should be there.
- Mohammad v. Aliyan Beg.
- consent obtained by force/fraud is valid under sunni law, but not under Shia law

- ④ Divorce by Decree of Courts: Muslim women can get a decree of divorce under Dissolution of Muslim Marriage Act. Sec. 2 of the act lists down plenty of grounds for the women to get judicial decree for the dissolution of marriage.

2020 - Human Rights Day Theme

Recover Better - Stand Up for Human Rights

Human Rights Day is observed every year on 10 December — the day the United Nations General Assembly adopted, in 1948, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR). The UDHR is a milestone document that proclaims the inalienable rights which everyone is entitled to as a human being - regardless of race, colour, religion, sex, language, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status. This year's Human Rights Day theme relates to the COVID-19 pandemic and focuses on the need to build back better by ensuring Human Rights are central to recovery efforts. We will reach our common global goals only if we are able to create equal opportunities for all, address the failures exposed and exploited by COVID-19, and apply human rights standards to tackle entrenched, systematic, and intergenerational inequalities, exclusion and discrimination. 10 December is an opportunity to reaffirm the importance of human rights in re-building the world we want, the need for global solidarity as well as our interconnectedness and shared humanity.
