Criterion - 1

METRIC 1.4.2 Stakeholders feedback report

The Feedback collected is used to fill the deficiencies found after analyzing the feedback taken from the students, teachers, and alumni. The students are the stakeholders of the institution whose satisfaction is of most concern for the institution. Students are asked whether the curriculum is helping in developing their personality, fulfilling their expectations applicable in their daily life. If any dissatisfaction is found in the feedback then it is discussed in the mentor meetings. The teachers are asked whether present syllabi fulfil the need for legal education, whether maximum legal knowledge can be imparted through present syllabi, about lacunae present in present syllabi, and the topics that can be added to the syllabi. After the feedback of teachers is taken, a deliberate discussion is made on it, if it is found that a particular subject is outdated or has discrepancies then the same is raised and it is discussed in the Principals' Meet at the affiliating University. In the same way, feedback on the curriculum is obtained from alumni and is analyzed. This gives the institution the views of the alumni relating to the syllabus and curriculum. It helps us to understand the position of the curriculum as it existed and the scope of improvement in the curriculum in the present-day scenario.

Suggestions for improvement of the curriculum by stakeholders ~ The syllabus has to be made simple and such subjects should be introduced which are useful from a practice point of view. Students should be prepared for judicial exams. More practical teachings should be adopted such as moot courts and mock trials to give exposure to students and develop communication skills. Procedural law should be emphasized and taught in detail. The course has to be more practical oriented.

The below are the analysis of the curriculum feedback for the year 2018-2019 and 2019-2020- 2020-2021.

SUB: SUBMISSION OF STAKEHOLDERS FEEDBACK ON CURRICULUM OF THE COLLEGE

Respected Sir,

As we are affiliated to your esteemed University, we would like to submit the feedback taken from our students, alumni and teachers on the curriculum prescribed by the University.

Below are some issues identified by the stakeholders which we would like to submit for your kind perusal:

1. The curriculum must have more practical orientated activities.
2. More Scope must be given to experiential learning.
3. Study tours to Supreme Court and High Courts must be included in the curriculum for gaining practical knowledge.
4. New courses on Medical Laws, Cyber Laws, and other new arenas must be introduced.

Hope you will consider these suggestions while reforming the curriculum of the programmes and courses in future.

Thanking You,

Sincerely,

Dr. A. H. Hawaldar

Less theory, more practical

Some topics are too high for the students of prelaw

No

Updating is necessary

There is need to introduce the subjects which will more helpful for the students in their future professional life. Further there is a need to give more importance on the practical aspects in relation to the subjects. Thank you.

There should be flexibility to include in the syllabi the latest developments in the field of law.

Good

Still minute improvement is required in some areas of work

More importance is given to theory and no importance to practical learning and the teaching and syllabus system is not par with the changing circumstances

Study of law has widened my horizon. However, the course and curriculum may be altered in such a way to change the perception of the student that law is business for earning money. No, law is a profession where money is just some secondary consequence. Further, arrangements need to be made for basic survival of fresh law graduates entering into practice.

Only dissatisfaction is office of college won't behave properly.. Specially after completion of course.
