Raja Lakhamgouda Law College, Belagavi is the oldest law college of Karnataka. Established in the year 1939 it is dedicated to provide quality legal education to the aspirants of this part of the Country. It has a rich library containing more than 40,000 books, several Law reporters and Law Journals. In addition to these, several journals and periodicals necessary for pre-law study and several books and periodicals of general interest also.

This Digital Library is created using the open source software Greenstone Digital Library (GSDL). The aim of the software is to empower users, particularly in universities, libraries, and other public service institutions, to build their own digital libraries. Digital libraries are radically reforming how information is disseminated and acquired in UNESCO's partner communities and institutions in the fields of education, science and culture around the world, and particularly in developing countries. We hope that this software will encourage the effective deployment of digital libraries to share information and place it in the public domain.

Gratuity is a reward for good, efficient and faithful service rendered for a considerable period. A workman becomes experienced during the tenure of his employment. This enables him to move out for better job avenues. Other employers can throw temptations to him. To lose him may be a loss to the employer. But if he stays on, that is his loyalty to the employer. Section 4 of Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 provides that gratuity shall be payable to an employee on the termination of his employment after he has rendered continuous service for not less than five years.

It is generally payable on superannuation or on retirement or death or disablement of employee due to accident or disease. The condition of completion of service of five years shall not be necessary where the termination of employment is due to death or disablement of the employee. In case of death of the employee, gratuity payable to the employee shall be paid to his nominee, or if no nomination has been made, to his heirs.

Law as practice of the court. Law is sovereign, but the sovereign to the realist is court.
Salmond: The law may be defined as the body recognized by the state in the administration of justice. In other words, the law consists of rules recognized and acted on by the state. The statute is a law soon it is passed, it does not wait to go to the court and then receive judicial recognition
